Annual Report 2021-22

During the academic year 2021-22, the teachers of the Department of English conducted both online and offline lectures for undergraduate and postgraduate classes as directed by the principal and vice-principal. The practical component of the functional English syllabus was completed using available facilities in the language lab. The lab was also used for online lectures for all the concerned classes. During online lectures, the teachers also attempted to boost the students' morale. The English subjects' E-contents have been uploaded to our college website. Prof. S.S. Alhat was awarded a Ph.D. in English on 21st Deember 2021 by BAMU, Aurangabad. Her thesis entitled 'Perspectives on Indian Writing in English in the Age of Globalization: A Study of Selected Recent Novels' was well appreciated. Prof. R.S. Pawar qualified for both SET in English (28th January 2022) & NET in English (19th February 2022). During the academic year 2021-22, the following activities were held in the department:
