Report on Debate Competition

The Department of English organized "The Debate Competition Activity" on 6th October 2023 at 11:00 a.m. in the Department of English. The topics for the debates were "What is better for learning: Teachers or the internet?" and "Is virtual learning suitable for young children?" The event garnered significant interest and participation, with 23 students engaging in spirited debates on the given topics. Participants presented compelling arguments and perspectives, showcasing their critical thinking skills and eloquence in expressing their views. Under the proficient coordination of Prof. S.S. Bhogade, the competition proceeded smoothly, with participants adhering to the rules and regulations of constructive debate. The atmosphere was intellectually stimulating, fostering healthy discourse and encouraging students to articulate their opinions effectively. The topics chosen for the debate touched upon pertinent issues in contemporary education, inviting deliberation on the role of traditional teaching methods versus technological advancements in facilitating learning, as well as the suitability of virtual learning platforms for young learners. Following the engaging debates, Prof. V. B. Kathe proposed the vote of thanks. Overall, "The Debate Competition Activity" served as a platform for students to exchange ideas, challenge perspectives, and enhance their oratory skills in a structured and intellectually stimulating environment.
