Report on Elocution Competition

The Department of English at Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya, Rajgurunagar, organized an Elocution Competition on 27th February 2024 at 10:00 a.m. in the English Language Lab. The competition aimed to provide a platform for students to hone their public speaking skills and express their viewpoints on various topics. Five thought-provoking topics were given for the competition, including "A Day without Mobile Phone," "Youth & Education," "Reservation policy of India," "Advantages & Disadvantages of social media," and "The Role of William Shakespeare in English Literature." A total of 45 students from both the English department and other departments of HRM, Rajgurunagar participated in the competition, showcasing their oratory skills and knowledge on diverse subjects. Each participant chose one topic from the provided list and delivered eloquent speeches within the time limit of 3 to 5 minutes. Prof. V. B. Kathe efficiently coordinated the event, ensuring smooth proceedings and adherence to the competition guidelines. Prof. S. S. Bhogade proposed the vote of thanks, appreciating the participants for their insightful speeches and the faculty for their support in organizing the competition. The Elocution Competition provided an invaluable opportunity for students to articulate their thoughts, engage in meaningful discourse, and develop their communication abilities. It fostered critical thinking, research skills, and the confidence to express opinions effectively in public settings. Overall, the event reflected the Department of English's commitment to fostering academic excellence and promoting intellectual discourse among students, contributing to their holistic development.
