Report on English Newspaper Reading Activity

The Department of English organized an English Newspaper Reading Activity on 7th March 2026 with the objective of enhancing students' language proficiency and general awareness. The activity was designed to encourage regular reading habits, improve vocabulary and develop a better understanding of current affairs among students. During the session, students actively engaged in reading selected news articles from various English newspapers. They also participated in discussions, where they shared their views and interpretations of the news. This interactive approach helped students improve their pronunciation, reading fluency and comprehension skills. It also enabled them to become more confident in expressing their opinions on contemporary issues. A total of 50 students took part in the activity with great enthusiasm and interest. Their active involvement made the session lively and meaningful. The activity created an environment that promoted learning through participation and discussion. The programme was coordinated by Prof. V. B. Kathe. The session concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. S. S. Mande, who appreciated the participation of students and the importance of such activities in academic development. Overall, the English Newspaper Reading Activity proved to be informative and beneficial. It not only strengthened students' reading and speaking abilities but also encouraged them to stay updated with current events and develop a habit of regular newspaper reading
