Report on Freshers Party/Welcome Program

The Department of English organized the "Freshers' Party" at the English Department laboratory for FYBA (Additional English) students on 28th August 2023 at 11:30 a.m. The esteemed chief guest of the program was Prof. Rupali Wayal, Head of Mathematics at HRM Rajgurunagar. The chief guest provided invaluable guidance to the students on academic and societal challenges. Encouraging students to delve into the realms of the English language and literature right from the inception of their BA course, Prof. Wayal emphasized the significance of linguistic proficiency in our daily lives. She addressed prevalent misconceptions regarding the English language, urging students to dispel any fears or misunderstandings. Her enlightening discourse motivated the students to strive for excellence in their linguistic pursuits. The session proved to be interactive, with students actively participating by posing questions and expressing their doubts, all of which were satisfactorily addressed by the speaker. The program's seamless execution was credited to the diligent efforts of the special English students, with Miss. Sonal Dhekale and Mr. Laxman Potwad adeptly handling the anchoring responsibilities. Dr. V. Y. Raskar gracefully introduced the chief guest to all the participants, enhancing the event's ambiance. The presence of the entire department staff alongside FYBA, SYBA, and TYBA Special English students further enriched the program. Dr. S. S. Mande coordinated the program. Twenty-five students participated in the program. Miss. Sonal Dhekale proposed the vote of thanks. The Freshers' Party served as an auspicious beginning for the academic journey of the FYBA Additional English students, inspiring them to embark on their studies with renewed zeal and determination.
