Report on Gandhi Jayanti

The Department of English at Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya organized a special program to commemorate Gandhi Jayanti, celebrated annually on October 2nd to honor the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, revered as the Father of the Nation. This significant event took place on 3rd October 2023 in the English Language Lab at 09:30 a.m. The program, dedicated to commemorating Mahatma Gandhi's profound legacy, witnessed enthusiastic participation from special English students, who attended in notable numbers. It began with a poignant prayer session, providing attendees with an opportunity to reflect deeply on Gandhi's life journey and the enduring principles he espoused. The session underscored the timeless values of truth, non-violence, and social justice, which remain integral to Gandhi's philosophy and continue to inspire generations worldwide. The Department of English reaffirmed its steadfast commitment to organizing such initiatives, aimed at celebrating and perpetuating the ideals of Mahatma Gandhi. Through these endeavors, the department aims to cultivate a heightened sense of social responsibility and promote effective communication skills through the medium of the English language, aligning with Gandhi's vision of constructive dialogue and inclusive discourse. Prof. S.S. Bhogade coordinated this event while Dr. V. B. Kathe proposed the vote of thanks. Twenty-six students attended this event. In commemorating Gandhi Jayanti, the Department of English not only honors the extraordinary life and teachings of Mahatma Gandhi but also reaffirms its commitment to advancing his enduring legacy, striving for a world guided by principles of peace, harmony, and social equity.
