Report on the Guest Lecture: "The Role and Significance of English in the NEP"

The Department of English organized a guest lecture on “The Role and Significance of English in the NEP” on 21st January 2025 at 10:30 AM in the English Language Lab. The resource person for the session was Dr. Sandeep Sanap, a distinguished academician and member of the Board of Studies in English, SPPU, currently serving at Modern College, Ganeshkhind, Pune. The program began with a warm welcome and introductory remarks by Dr. V. Y. Raskar, who briefly highlighted the academic contributions of Dr. Sanap. The guest was then felicitated by Dr. D.M. Markad, in appreciation of his valuable time and presence. Dr. Sanap delivered an insightful lecture focusing on the growing importance of English within the framework of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, particularly in relation to the Multidisciplinary Education Programme. He elaborated on the evolving role of English as a crucial medium of instruction and communication and how it is positioned as a key enabler in academic and professional spheres under the NEP reforms. The speaker also shed light on the challenges and opportunities in English language education in India, especially in rural and semi-urban contexts. He emphasized the need for developing communicative competence and integrating English effectively in teaching-learning processes to meet global standards. An interactive Question and Answer session followed the lecture, wherein both students and faculty actively participated. Several queries were raised regarding curriculum implementation, language barriers and future prospects for students under the NEP structure, all of which were addressed with clarity and depth by Dr. Sanap. The session concluded with a formal vote of thanks proposed by Prof. V. B Kathe, who expressed heartfelt gratitude to the speaker for his valuable insights and to the organizing team and participants for their enthusiastic involvement. The lecture proved to be highly informative and thought-provoking, offering a deeper understanding of how English can be strategically utilized to enhance educational quality and student potential in the NEP era. Students expressed their appreciation for the opportunity to engage with current academic discourse and the session was unanimously regarded as enriching and impactful.
