Report on Guest Lecture on Legal Framework for Forensic Scientists

The Department of Zoology, Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya, organized a guest lecture on “Legal Framework for Forensic Scientists” on 6th October 2026 for the T. Y. B.Sc. Zoology students as an academic enrichment activity. The lecture was delivered by Adv. Gurudatta Borhade, who provided valuable insights into the legal aspects associated with forensic science and the responsibilities of forensic professionals within the legal system. The programme was organized under the guidance of Prof. D. N. Birhade, Head, Department of Zoology, and Prof. D. R. Borhade, Subject Teacher of Medical & Forensic Science.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome to the guest speaker and the students by Prof. D. N. Birhade, Head, Department of Zoology. In his welcome address, he introduced the guest speaker and highlighted the importance of understanding the legal framework associated with forensic science. He emphasized that knowledge of legal procedures is essential for students of forensic science, as forensic evidence plays an important role in criminal investigation and judicial proceedings.

During the lecture, Adv. Gurudatta Borhade explained various aspects of the legal framework relevant to forensic scientists. He discussed the role and responsibilities of forensic experts, the importance of proper collection and preservation of evidence, the significance of maintaining the integrity and authenticity of forensic evidence, and the role of forensic reports and expert testimony in court proceedings. He also explained how forensic evidence is presented and evaluated within the legal system. The lecture helped the T. Y. B.Sc. Zoology students understand the close relationship between forensic science and law and provided them with valuable practical insights into the legal responsibilities of forensic professionals.

The session was interactive and informative, allowing the students to gain a better understanding of the legal and professional aspects of forensic science. The lecture helped the students connect their theoretical knowledge of Medical & Forensic Science with its practical applications in criminal investigation and judicial proceedings. It also enhanced their awareness of professional ethics, legal procedures, and the responsible handling of forensic evidence.

At the end of the programme, Prof. D. R. Borhade, Subject Teacher of Medical & Forensic Science, delivered the concluding remarks and expressed sincere gratitude to Adv. Gurudatta Borhade for sharing his valuable knowledge and expertise with the students. He also thanked the Head of the Department, faculty members, and T. Y. B.Sc. Zoology students for their active participation and cooperation. The guest lecture concluded successfully and proved to be a valuable and enriching academic experience for the students of the Department of Zoology.
