Report on Monologue Mastery: The Dramatic Reading Competition

The Department of English at Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya meticulously organized the 'Monologue Mastery: The Dramatic Reading Competition' on 26th February 2024 at 10:30 a.m. in the English Language Lab. This event was designed to showcase students' dramatic reading skills. Twenty-two students demonstrated their proficiency in the art of monologue delivery. Under the skilful coordination of Prof. S.S. Bhogade, the competition unfolded seamlessly, with participants showcasing their talent through captivating performances. The monologues spanned a diverse range of literary genres and themes, from classical soliloquies to contemporary dramatic pieces, allowing students to explore various aspects of character portrayal and narrative expression. Each participant exhibited a unique interpretation and delivery style, captivating the audience with their emotive renditions and engaging storytelling. Dr.V.Y.Raskar ensured the smooth progression of the event, maintaining a conducive environment for artistic expression and creativity to flourish. Dr.V.Y.Raskar proposed the vote of thanks, expressing appreciation to all participants for their exceptional performances and dedication. The 'Monologue Mastery' competition not only provided a platform for students to showcase their talent but also fostered a deeper appreciation for the art of dramatic reading, encouraging participants to delve into the nuances of character interpretation and narrative delivery. Moreover, the event served as an avenue for students to hone their public speaking skills, build confidence, and cultivate a deeper connection with literary texts. Through such initiatives, the Department of English continues to nurture a culture of artistic expression and literary appreciation among its students, enriching their academic experience and fostering a lifelong love for literature.
