Report on Teachers' Day Celebration

The Department of English, Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya, Rajgurunagar, organized a warm and memorable Teachers' Day celebration on 5th September 2024 at 11:30 a.m. in the English Language Laboratory. The event was held to express heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to the dedicated educators who continuously guide, motivate and shape the academic and personal development of their students. The celebration began with a formal welcome by Prof. V.B. Kathe, who also served as the event coordinator. She highlighted the significance of the day and praised the commitment and selfless service of the faculty members in nurturing the minds and character of students. The function was attended by students and faculty members from the department, and the atmosphere was filled with reverence, joy and gratitude. Dr. V.Y. Raskar addressed the gathering and spoke about the purpose of celebrating Teachers' Day, which commemorates the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, the second President of India, a great teacher, philosopher and statesman. He emphasized the noble role that teachers play in nation-building and in shaping future generations. Dr. S.S. Mande provided a historical overview of Teachers' Day in India and internationally. She spoke about Dr. Radhakrishnan's life, his contributions to Indian education and how the celebration of his birthday as Teachers' Day is a symbolic way of honoring all teachers across the country. Her talk inspired students to respect and value the guidance they receive from their mentors. Prof. S.S. Bhogade also addressed the gathering and reflected on the teacher-student relationship, highlighting its foundation in mutual respect, trust and learning. She encouraged students to remain curious, hardworking and humble, and also reminded them of the lifelong impact that good teachers can have on their lives. Several students came forward to speak on the occasion. They expressed their gratitude through heartfelt speeches, poems and personal anecdotes that reflected the influence of their teachers in their lives. The messages shared during the event demonstrated the strong bond between the students and faculty, making the day emotionally meaningful. The event concluded with a small token of appreciation presented by students to the teachers. The celebration not only acknowledged the efforts of the teaching staff but also served as a reminder of the noble ideals of education and the enduring impact of a good teacher. Overall, the Teachers' Day programme organized by the Department of English was a touching and memorable celebration.
