Report on The Teachers' Day Celebration Programme

"The Teachers' Day Celebration Programme" was a momentous occasion organized by the Department of English on September 5, 2023, held at the English Department Lab at 11:30 a.m. The event served as a platform for both students and teaching staff to express their heartfelt appreciation for the invaluable contributions of teachers in their lives. During the event, participants from the English department shared profound insights into the pivotal role teachers play in shaping their academic journey and personal growth. They reminisced about their interactions and experiences with their former mentors, highlighting the enduring impact of their guidance and wisdom. Dr.V.Y.Raskar and Dr.S.S.Mande delivered enlightening speeches on the significance of teachers in the holistic development of society and the nation. Prof. Raskar underscored the profound influence educators wield in nurturing future leaders and fostering societal progress, while Prof. Mande elucidated on the crucial relationship between teachers and students, emphasizing the importance of empathy and understanding in the teaching-learning process. The event was coordinated by Prof.V.B.Kathe. Miss. Pranjal Doundkar and Miss. Apapna Chandrabanshi's dedication ensured the smooth execution of the program, allowing participants to engage meaningfully in the discussions and activities. Twenty-eight students participated in the program. Prof.S.S.Bhogade proposed the vote of thanks by extending heartfelt gratitude on behalf of the department to all attendees, participants, and organizers, acknowledging their collective efforts in making the Teachers' Day Celebration Programme a resounding success.
