Report

The Teachers' Day celebration organized by the Department of Commerce at Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya on 5th September 2026 was a successful and memorable event. A total of 45 students participated by taking on the role of teachers, which helped them develop confidence, leadership qualities, communication skills, and a better understanding of the responsibilities of the teaching profession.

The celebration included kindling the lamp, a warm welcome to the dignitaries, Introduction by Dr. G.M. Dhumal, Speech by Principal, Presidential Address by Adv. Devendraji Buttepatil, and the active participation of student-teachers in academic and co-curricular activities. The dignitaries appreciated the students' efforts and emphasized the significant role of teachers in shaping students' knowledge, values, and character. The programme created an atmosphere of respect, enthusiasm, and learning.

The dignitaries, including Dr. S. S. Pingale, Principal; Adv. Devendraji Buttepatil, President, KTSP Mandal; Shri. Nanasaheb Takalkar, Vice-President, KTSP Mandal; and Dr. G. M. Dhumal, Head of the Department of Commerce, appreciated the students' active participation and efforts. All staff members of the Commerce Department contributed to the successful organization of the programme. The activity encouraged students to respect teachers and recognize their important role in shaping society.
