Report on Elocution Competition

The Department of English organized an elocution competition on 7th March 2026 to mark the occasion of International Women's Day. The primary objective of the event was to create awareness among students about women's empowerment, gender equality and the vital role women play in shaping society. The competition provided a valuable platform for students to express their ideas and perspectives on important social issues. The event featured a variety of relevant and engaging topics such as Inspirational Women Leaders, Breaking Stereotypes: Women in Non-Traditional Careers and Role of Women in Nation Building. Each participant was given a time limit of five minutes to deliver their speech. The speakers presented their thoughts with confidence, clarity and enthusiasm, reflecting their awareness and understanding of the themes. A total of 43 students actively participated in the competition. The event witnessed great enthusiasm and involvement from the participants, making it both lively and informative. The audience also appreciated the efforts of the speakers, as many of them highlighted real-life examples and shared meaningful insights into the challenges and achievements of women in various fields. The competition was efficiently coordinated by Dr. S. S. Mande. The event was well-organized and all necessary arrangements were managed effectively. The judging criteria focused on content, delivery, confidence and overall presentation skills. The program concluded with a formal vote of thanks proposed by Prof. V. B. Kathe. The elocution competition not only enhanced the speaking skills of the students but also encouraged them to think critically about important societal issues related to women and their empowerment.
