Report on Guest Lecture

The Department of English organized a guest lecture on 11th February 2026 for the students of Special English. The lecture was conducted on the topic “Poetry as a Discourse” with the objective of broadening students’ understanding of literary theory and critical perspectives in poetry. The session was delivered by Dr. Keshav Borkar, an esteemed academician, who shared valuable insights into the concept of poetry as a form of discourse. In his lecture, he elaborated on the expressive nature of poetry, its multiple layers of meaning and the various ways in which it can be interpreted. He also emphasized the relevance of poetry in contemporary literary studies and its connection with social, cultural and philosophical contexts. Dr. Borkar’s presentation was both engaging and thought-provoking. He interacted with the students throughout the session, encouraging them to think critically and participate in discussions. His ability to explain complex literary ideas in a simple and clear manner made the lecture highly informative and accessible to all. A total of 58 students attended the lecture and participated actively. The session received a positive response from the students, who found it enriching and beneficial for their academic growth. It helped them gain a deeper appreciation of poetry and enhanced their analytical skills. The programme was coordinated by Dr.V.Y.Raskar, whose efforts ensured the smooth organization of the event. The lecture concluded with a formal vote of thanks proposed by Dr. S. S. Mande, who expressed gratitude to the guest speaker for his valuable contribution and to the participants for their enthusiastic involvement. Overall, the guest lecture was a meaningful and enlightening experience, providing students with deeper insights into literary discourse and strengthening their understanding of poetry as an important field of study.
