Report on Poetry Recitation Programme

The English Department successfully organized a Poetry Recitation Programme on 19th September 2025 with the objective of fostering creativity among students and enhancing their appreciation of literature through poetry. The programme was coordinated by Dr. V. Y. Raskar. The programme commenced with a brief introduction highlighting the importance of poetry as a powerful form of literary expression and its role in developing language skills and emotional sensitivity among students. Students of the English Department enthusiastically participated in the programme and recited a variety of English poems, including both classic and contemporary works. The participants displayed remarkable confidence, clarity of expression, and effective voice modulation, which made the recitations engaging and enjoyable for the audience. A total of 54 students actively participated in and attended the event, making it vibrant and interactive. The programme not only provided a platform for students to showcase their talent but also helped in improving their public speaking skills and boosting their self-confidence. The event was well-organized, and the coordination among the faculty members and students contributed significantly to its success. The programme concluded on a formal note with a Vote of Thanks proposed by Prof. V. B. Kathe.
