Report

The NSS Unit of Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya organized Rally on 10th August 2022 as a part of “Har Ghar Tiranga” to celebrate 75 years of India’s Independence. A total 250 students from Arts, Commerce and Science faculty had participated in this rally. This activity was organized in the collaboration with Khed Police Station. The rally started from Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya, Rajgurunagar to Great Martyr Hutatma Rajguru Wada. The rally started by saluting the statues of great Martyrs Rajguru, Bhagat Singh and Sukhadev at the ST stand. The participant of the rally carries Indian flags and raised slogans. Police Inspector Mr. Satish Gurav said that the objective of Tiranga rally is to create sense of patriotism, national pride and belongings, to remember countries freedom struggle by instilling patriotism in the heart of citizens. He also gave information about precautions to be taken while hoisting the Tiranga so that the national flag is not insulted. On this occasion the Principal Dr. Shirish Pingle, Vice Principal of Junior College Prof. Vitthal Daundkar, Registrar Mr. Kailas Pacharane, Prof. A. B. Kanwade and Prof. Sandeep Thorat were present. The activity was organized by NSS program officers Dr. Kirti Nitnaware, Dr. Prabhakar Jagtap and Dr. Ganesh Dhumal.
