Report

Under the National Service Scheme (NSS) at Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya, as per the directives of the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, New Delhi, the "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaign was organized this year from 9th August to 14th August 2024. A series of programs were conducted as part of this initiative, including group discussions, essay competitions, and poster-making competitions.

The highlight of the event was a rally organized on 14th August 2024, at 10:00 a.m., starting from the college premises and concluding at the Hutatma Rajguru Wada. The rally was jointly conducted by Khed Police Station, Rajgurunagar, and the NSS department. Its primary aim was to instill a sense of patriotism among students and the general public and to raise awareness about the "Har Ghar Tiranga" initiative. The program was graced by the esteemed presence of: Dr. Shirish Pingale, Principal of the College, Dr. V.D. Kulkarni and Dr. Sanjay Shinde. The planning and execution of the campaign were managed by NSS Program Officers: Dr. Prabhakar Jagtap, Dr. Kirti Nitaware, Dr. Sunita Jadhav, Prof. Usha Jadhav, Prof. Vrushali Kathe, Prof. Sheetal Bhogade, Prof. Pooja Kad, Prof. Nilesh Barne, Dr. Sagar Theurkar, Dr. Jabbar Shaikh. The campaign was a great success, with active participation from students, faculty, and community members. It significantly contributed to promoting national pride and awareness about the importance of hoisting the Tricolor at every household. This initiative reflects the college's commitment to fostering civic responsibility and patriotism among students and the broader community.
