Report on Elocution Competition

The Language Lab Cell at Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya, Rajgurunagar, hosted an Elocution Competition on 27th February 2024 at 10:45 a.m. in the English Language Lab. The competition aimed to provide a platform for students to refine their public speaking skills and express their viewpoints on pertinent topics. Three thought-provoking topics were assigned for the competition: "The Impact of Technology on Language Learning: Opportunities and Challenges," "The Importance of Learning a Second Language in the Globalized World," and "The Role of Language Proficiency in Enhancing Career Opportunities." A total of 38 students from both the English department and other departments of HRM, Rajgurunagar participated, showcasing their oratory skills and knowledge on diverse subjects. Each participant selected one topic from the list and delivered eloquent speeches within the designated time frame of 3 to 5 minutes. Dr. V.Y. Raskar efficiently coordinated the event, ensuring seamless proceedings and adherence to competition guidelines. Prof. S. S. Mande extended gratitude through the proposal of the vote of thanks, appreciating the participants for their insightful speeches and acknowledging the faculty's support in organizing the competition. The Elocution Competition provided students with a valuable opportunity to articulate their thoughts, engage in meaningful discourse, and enhance their communication abilities. It facilitated critical thinking, honed research skills, and bolstered confidence in expressing opinions effectively in public settings. Overall, the event underscored the Language Lab Cell's dedication to fostering academic excellence and promoting intellectual discourse among students, contributing to their holistic development.
